about me

I am half Italian and half Brazilian. If you were to ask me what I love the most, I would tell you that I am a content and joyful man and love my wife, pizza, Gelato, Formula 1 racing and traveling to discover new cultures and places. Additionally, I am an amateur kart pilot and I am passionate about crossfit training.

Professionally, I am a Motion Graphics Artist with a wealth of experience in creating motion graphics for various electronic media platforms. I excel in collaborating with creative directors, project managers, and other creative professionals to ensure the success of the company. My skills encompass 2D animation, typography, design, 3D animation, editing, and color grading.
